

TANGO

AKA TRAVERS ROSS
A TALE TELLA
THRU ORGNL
MUSiK x DANC x FiLM

Listen to the howling cry of the YT DiNGO! It will lure you to dance. Through anti-pop, rock, roots n hip-hop. This award winning hybrid and festival knockout is on the rise. A Tale Teller that vibrates the floor, stereo's and screens with a massive sound, unauthodox choreography and high energy powered by ocean, land and sky.

YT DiNGO (pronounced White Dingo) is a shape shifter in the flesh from the genius mind of Travers Ross. Known to wittingly challenge the norm bringing worlds together with all he has...body, voice, senses connected to consciousness, a d-floor, a microphone backed by a killer pack of musicians and dancers.

First E.P "Side A" is the massively anticipated debut E.P. from YT DiNGO, featuring the trilogy - radio loved 'Thrill of the Chase', the artistically eloquent 'Wicked Rest' and the Gold Coast Music Award-winning 'Shipwrecked', all accompanied by aesthetically pleasing music videos. The EP's opening & closing number I've Been To The Sea' & 'Girls Down Under' features Djuki Mala before bursting forth into a masterful hip-hop/modern rock amalgamation, with MC style verses giving way to a soaring chorus. This E.P. was first performed live at Splendour in the Grass in 2018.

E.P. "Side B" followed in 2020 with the first single 'End of the World' being released simultaneously as the first lockdowns were announced in Oz. This was followed by 'WTFU' (Wake The Fuck Up) also inadvertently released as the BLM rally's began in Meanjin. YT DiNGO's east coast tour plans were disrupted by the pandemic and 'Listen To The First Nations' was then released while the continent and the DiNGO pack marched in protest of Blak deaths in custody. Sharing Yugambeh language, DancingWater joins YT DiNGO on fourth release 'Plastic Toys' that continues to receive regular radio play nationwide. Yt DiNGO took this E.P to Abergowrie college and performed it live stream raising awareness for the Torres Strait 8, Our Islands, Our Home campaign.

YT DiNGO's consistency with timing in releasing music, shows a prophetic wisdom. YT DiNGO is the personification of blood, sweat and tears. This music and dance hybrid project encapsulates songs, movement and feeling in its rawest form. A new dichotomy of musical storytelling and of rock, rap, dance. An original versatile performer, vocalist, choreographer, his genre bending could have you thinking he is the secret love child of Rage Against the Machine and Michael Jackson.
